The institution is in good standing and is scheduled for its next review in February 2021. The Association for Biblical Higher Education Commission on Accreditation is recognized as a national, faith-related accrediting agency by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (chea.org/Directories/faith.asp). The ABHE Commission on Accreditation is also recognized by the U.S. Department of Education as a national, institutional, specialized accrediting agency (www2.ed.gov/admins/finaid/accred/accreditation_pg7.html#comm). ABHE is one of 25 regional and national accreditors for which Candidate status (preaccredited status) is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education for eligibility to participate in certain federal programs, including Title IV financial aid (www2.ed.gov/admins/finaid/accred/accreditation_pg8.html).

ABHE is a charter member of CHEA and has been recognized by the U.S. Department of Education since 1952 when the Department first started recognizing accrediting agencies. All regional, national, and specialized accreditors are subject to the same CHEA and USDE review standards.

Information concerning ABHE accreditation is available at www.abhe.org. Institutional accreditation can be verified at www.chea.org/search or ope.ed.gov/accreditation/Search.aspx. Please note that the CHEA and USDE directories may not include additions of recent months.
